IN THE PURPLE

Had a boring New Years eve night, got socks for Christmas instead of ProV1's - do not be unhappy!!! Look at the poster on our online site (<https://www.northlandgolfclub.co.nz/events>) - there is a hagggle on 1 Jan 26 playing stroke play off the purple tees. Wear your purple gear. Be there at 9 am for 9.30 am start. If you are by yourself we will put you into a group. This is a great way to see in the new year and be in amongst friends. See the poster in the Shop and at our Club online site and come along for a re-load of golf sport.

CHRISTMAS CHEER

The weather was excellent, a little bit of wind, no rain and it was overcast for a bit of the time keeping it cool. There were 22 women and 102 men in the competition.

A special mention of thanks and appreciation goes to the companies and individuals that donated items for the Christmas Lucky Draw. The Club asks that members support these companies to reciprocate their generosity shown to Northland Golf Club. They are: BIRDIE NZ, CAROLINE BON, DONOVANS, GOLF DISTRIBUTORS, HI CUT CLOTHING NZ, LB COLLISION REPAIR GROUP, LION NZ, NEXT EDITION KITCHENS, PARAMOUNT THAI MASSAGE, UNDERPAR GOLF. Congratulations to all Christmas Cheer winners.

HOLE IN ONE - WAYNE VALENTIN

Congratulations to Wayne Valentin who got a hole in one on the 18th on Thursday.

FIRST BALL AND GIN CUP

This event marks the official opening of play for the Club and is on Sun 18 Jan 26. It is a stroke play event with prizes for gross, net and stableford scores. Come along and enjoy the start of Club events. The poster and information will be released very soon and there will be some changes in the 2026 event. So, put aside Sunday 18th January to be part of the Club's Opening Day and officially hit your first golf ball for 2026. Fooorree.

THE CLUB'S MESSAGE OF APPRECIATION

The Club has a lot that happens during the calendar year and a lot of it is made possible with the help and loyalty of staff and volunteers within all corners of the Club's business. The Club expresses its appreciation and sincere thanks to all its staff, volunteers, committees, members, sponsors and various other supporters for the enormous support and work effort over the year.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

THE LONGEST DAY

Members of the Club, Colin Thomson, Scotty Brown, Max Smith, Dallas McKay, Peter Blair and Paul Priestley will be playing 72 holes on Monday 22nd December at Northland Golf Club to raise money for the Cancer Society. At the Club Christmas Cheer yesterday, donations totalling $560 were raised from players and supporters. The team of six players thank those who donated funds and appreciate the support of the Christmas Cheer group.

More information on how to make a donation can be found at the Northland Golf Club Facebook page - please give for a very worthy cause
