Newsletter of the Northland Golf Club - Monday 22 April, 2024

2024 NORTHLAND JUNIOR OPEN

Congratulations to the winners of the 2024 Northland Junior Open at Managwhai Golf Club. Rafe Fleming-Bone won the Under 19 boys.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED - BALL PICKUP

Using the Northland Golf Club driving range to learn or practice essential golf skills is a very popular pastime for Club members and the public. However the range can only function with the efforts of some dedicated volunteers who collect the range balls each night ready for another day in the morning. These volunteers fulfil an extremely important Club function and also provide an avenue for members of the public to enjoy golf and perhaps join the Club. The popularity of the range is now such that volunteers are sought to collect the range balls midday on selected days for an hour or two. Volunteers will be given training in the operation of the range tractor including safety whilst operating the equipment. If you are able to be available for one or two hours a day or days please contact the Golf Shop to discuss your interest. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated.

ANZAC DAY

This is a reminder for those who want to play to register with the Golf Shop prior to Thur 25 Apr. If you don't have a four to play in then register anyway and a four will be found for you.

The Shop will open at 10am on ANZAC Day.

The Shop now has a RSA Poppy Box for those of you who would like to make a small donation to get a poppy or two.

36 HOLE MEN'S PENNANTS POSTPONED

The Pennants event that was to be held on Sat 20 Apr has been postponed due to adverse weather conditions. Instead the event will be held as soon as possible on a date yet to be finalised. A separate email will be issued to advise everyone of the new date because it will involve restricted use of the course.
