DAMAGE ON THE COURSE

This is a call again for all players to replace divots on the course and repair pitch-marks on the greens. We have noticed a buildup of divots and pitch-marks not repaired. Please help the Greens Team to keep our course in pristine condition.

JUNIOR GOLF LESSONS

We are proud to announce our first Junior Golf Lessons for ages 7 to 13 starting on Sat 11 May. We have partnered with the Coach from The Golf Shop in Te Kamo to run these lessons. It is for 5 weeks and is open to all - not just members children so please spread the word.

BRIDGE

Thanks to all the volunteers that helped with the bridge upgrade on the 2nd. It is now open.

VOLUNTEERS ARE NEEDED - 8 MAY

Volunteers are needed on Wed 8 May from 9 am at the 9th tee to assist in work being led by Gordon Eddie. If you can spare some time to assist in the work please turn up as outlined above. Any assistance from volunteers would be greatly appreciated.

LION TOUR FINAL - 19 MAY

The final for the 2024 Lion Tour event will take place on Sun 19 May with the tee-off starting at 10 am. There will be a field of 60 players over 18 holes which will require restrictions on general Club players for most of the day. The course will be opened to general play as soon as play progress allows. Any queries can be directed to the Golf Shop.

36 HOLE MEN'S PENNANTS - 18 MAY

The 2024 36-Hole Men's Pennants Play-Off involving twenty four players will tee off at 8 am off tees 1 and 10 on Sat 18 May.
